

Please Let Me Tell You a Story

(Music and lyrics by John R. Rudisill and Leslie E. Bruggeman)

Verse 1

Please let me tell you a stor-y of the man from Gal-i-lee, how He came down from His glo-ry, just so He could set us free.

Chorus

He was nailed upon a tree, how He paid the price for me, now He dwells next to the Fa-ther, ma-king a place for you and me.

Verse 2

If you give your self to Je-sus, He will guide you through this life, He is faithful to de-li-ver you from all your trials and your strife.

Chorus

He was nailed upon a tree, how He paid the price for me, now He dwells next to the Fa-ther, ma-king a place for you and me.

Verse 3

Oh, what a joy it is to serve Him, and to love as He has loved. We shall see our dear be-lov-ed, and live for-ev-er with Him.

Bridge

How great a love, we've been giv-en, how can we fail to give our all, our highest call is just to serve Him, don't leave this life un-for-gi-ven.

Chorus

He was nailed upon a tree, how He paid the price for me, now He dwells next to the Fa-ther, ma-king a place for you and me.

© John R. Rudisill and Leslie E. Bruggeman, May, 2017