AND THEN CAME GOD

Music and lyrics by John R. Rudisill and Leslie E. Bruggeman

Verse 1

His body broken, ridden so hard, deeply in debt, put away wet.
Life had failed him, stole all his dreams, left him no hope, no way to cope.
Then he wondered, should I die, take my life and stop my cries.
He sighed, please hear my cries,

Chorus

And then came God, Almighty God, God gave him life, grace God would give, life he could live.
And then he knew, a new creature grew, one who was changed, given new life, was rearranged.

Verse 2

He can't deserve Him, but he serves Him. Sometimes he fails, tempted to sin,
Life is still hard, slips back to sin. God never fails, helps make amends.
Now he wonders, where he'd be, without God how could he see.
He sighed, please hear my cries,

Bridge

He knows God cares, he knows God cares.
There's no despair, he knows God cares, he knows God loves him and keeps him.
He gave him life, He gave him hope, for tomorrow, no sorrow, tomorrow, no sorrow.

Chorus

Verse 3

God has blest him, given so much, he can't believe, all he's received.
He walks daily, in God's footsteps. Grateful to Him, overcomes sin.
He looks forward, to the time when he'll see God, make that climb.
He sighed, please hear my cries.

Chorus
