

“Here Comes the Good News”

Music and lyrics by John R. Rudisill and Leslie E. Bruggeman

Verse 01

He watched as his life passed be-fore his eyes,
as those tears blurred his sight, was this it?
He saw the pic-tures of a bro-ken life,
a pain-filled, em-pty life was this all?

Verse 02

He heard the beep-ing, nur-ses scur-ry-ing
I must be dy-ing, this is it!
He won-dered if his daugh-ter thought of him.
He had-n't talked to her for 10 years.

Verse 03

If he could live his life all o- ver,
live it with a new twist, thanks to Him.
He'd live His life for God and love much more.
Yes, he would love much more, love more, Lord.

Chorus

Here is the good news! Christ to the res-cue!
He came to save you, to ease all your blues.
Lis-ten to His truth.
You've no-thing to lose.
Come here the good news, He will come back soon.
