

“There’s Something About the Word”

Music and lyrics by Leslie E. Bruggeman and John R. Rudisill

Verse 01

In the be-gin-ing, the Word was with God.
From the be-gin-ing, the Word filled us with awe.
Open up our ears, open up our hearts, to a tender love sto-ry, that’s writ-ten from a-bove.

Verse 02

There’s something a-bout the Word, that makes us turn our heads,
There’s something a-bout the Word that’s hard to com-pre-hend,
Open up our ears, open up our hearts, to a tender love sto-ry, that’s writ-ten
from a-bove.

Verse 03

There’s something a-bout the Word, that cuts us like a sword,
There’s something a-bout the Word, that draws us to the Lord.
Open up our ears, open up our hearts, to a tender love sto-ry, that’s writ-ten
from a-bove.

Chorus

Whenever I hear it I feel so warm in-side. Whenever I hear it I feel Him by my side.
He’s all I want, He’s all I ne-e-d.
