

Without You

Music & Lyrics by Leslie E. Bruggeman & John R. Rudisill

VERSE 01

Church bells ring and the sun is bright
I look in the mir-ror and I know that things aren't right.
the ra-dio plays the same old song
Memor-ies of an old love lin-gers on.

VERSE 02

What is so wrong with this pic-ture?
I'm all a-lone, You're not here. Sit-ting here with all my fears.
Mem-or-ies of when we weren't so kind.
Must have bren out of our minds, How could we have been so blind.

CHORUS

I can't be a part of you with feel-ings that I know are true.
I wish we could be to-ge-ther find a love that lasts for-e-ver.
Some say throw your love a-way, if it comes back it's here to stay.
I know that my love is true. I'll ne-ver be the same with-out you.
With-out you, with-out you.

© Leslie E. Bruggeman and John R. Rudisill, January, 2019. All Rights Reserved.